

Terms of credit:

1. Students are expected to attend the classes punctually and theoretically prepared, according to the topic and literature (available on the departments notice board and syllabus on the website of the University).
2. In order to receive credit for the course both attendance to 90% of classes and final test (in the end of 2nd semester, during the last classes) are mandatory.
3. Each absence must be made up individually with teacher or ED didactic tutor. The attendance to other groups' classes for making up is possible - only after previous individual acceptance of the group's teacher.
4. Please note that the credit is mandatory and the absence may result in problems with receiving the examination card.